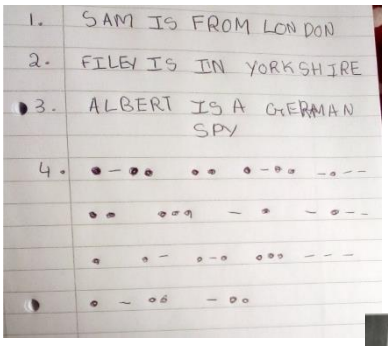
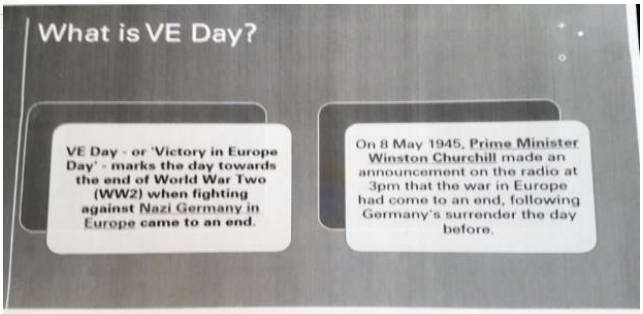
History Home Learning

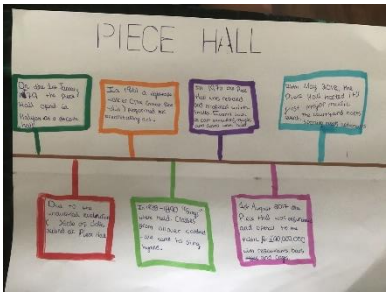
Since the end of March, the majority of the children from Beech Hill School have been learning at home. The children have been set tasks to support them in continuing to develop their understanding of significant events in local and world history.

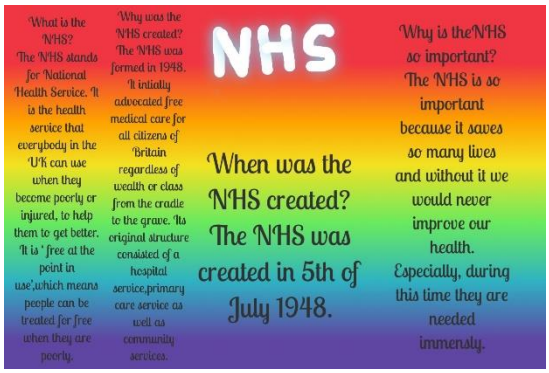
Victory in Europe Day

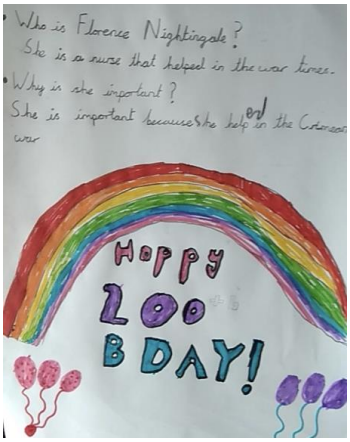




The Piece Hall







Florence Nightingale's 200th Birthday