

RE Unit 5.1 Why are some places and journeys special?

Top Vocabulary

Faith - is trusting in something or someone.

Responsibility - means being dependable, making good choices, and taking accountability for your actions.

Belief - a belief is an idea that a person accepts as being true or real.

Pilgrimage - a journey to a holy place is called a pilgrimage. A person who makes such a journey is a pilgrim.

Reflection - an opinion formed or a remark made after careful thought.

Some places are special to different people and different faiths.

The Western Wall is considered a sacred site by Jews because it is the closest point to the Temple Mount, the most sacred site in Judaism

Sikhs reflect continually on the way that they live their lives, and whether they have a 'oneness with God'.

Sikhs do not consider pilgrimage a necessity - daily meditation is more important and effective.

Makkah is a special place for Muslims. Muslims have the ambition to visit Makkah at least once in their lifetime.

The city of Jerusalem is sacred to Judaism, Christianity and Islam; which consider it a holy city.

