

Year 4 - Summer 2 - Yorkshire

Key Vocabulary	Definition
 county	A county usually consists of several towns and the rural areas that surround them.
 density	The extent to which a place is covered with people or things.
 National Park	Protected areas because of their beautiful countryside, wildlife and cultural heritage
 suburb	An area of a town or city, a little away from the main part, where there are fewer big buildings and mainly houses, schools and shops.

This is a Geography topic. We will be working as Geographers.

Yorkshire is in the North of England

Yorkshire the largest county in the UK.

Halifax is a town in West Yorkshire.

Yorkshire is split into North Yorkshire, South Yorkshire, East Riding of Yorkshire and West Yorkshire.

The Yorkshire Dales is a National Park. It has lots of physical features because it is a rural place.

Urban

Rural

The Pennines is a range of hills and mountains separating North West England from Yorkshire and North East England.

Must Knows Year 4- Summer 2 - Yorkshire

Key Facts

- Yorkshire is a county in the UK.
- Yorkshire is split into four sections; West Yorkshire, South Yorkshire, North Yorkshire and East Riding of Yorkshire.
- Some of the main cities in Yorkshire are York, Leeds and Bradford.
- Yorkshire has lots of human features such as towns, cities, bridges, schools, roads and shops.
- Yorkshire has some physical features such as hills, National Parks and rivers.
- Halifax is a town in Yorkshire.
- Halifax is classified as a town because it has a population over 300,000.
- Halifax has lots of human features because it is an urban place.
- The land use within Halifax has changed over time.
- The Yorkshire Dales is a National Park and it has lots of physical features because it is a rural place.
- The land use within the Yorkshire Dales has not changed very much over time because it is a National Park which means the land is protected and can not be urbanised.