Ambitious about Autism

is a charity that stand with autistic children and young people, champion their rights and create opportunities. If you are a parent or young person looking to connect with others and share your experiences, you can join their Talk about Autism forum - a friendly online community.

<https://www.ambitiousaboutautism.org.uk/>

Their quality of life at home toolkit comprises a series of five animated films to support autistic children and young people, as well as their parents and families around understanding behaviour and emotional needs.
