

Cognition and Learning Team

What we do

- We are a specialist service that supports children and young people with cognition and learning differences
- We make sure they have equal access to education, develop independence, and achieve their potential

Who it's for

- Children and young people who have specific or significant learning difficulty or developmental delay in education from 0-25

Why it's offered

- To provide support in line with the Children and Families Act (2014), the SEND Code of Practice (2015) and the Equality Act 2010

Where it's offered

- In the child or young person's home
- Transition from home and back in to education
- Schools and colleges

Success

- Children and young people have the opportunity to achieve their full potential and feel proud of their success
- Children and young people develop independence, self-advocacy skills and resilience
- Schools provide high quality, inclusive teaching and learning opportunities for pupils

How

- Referral: are made from health, education providers and parent carers
- Initial contact: Referrals are triaged and the team will make contact with parent carers and settings
- Support: A package of support is agreed through multi-agency approach
- Review: Support is reviewed continually through the graduated approach
- Parent carers are involved in all aspects of the work
